STANDING RULES

District Conference—Membership.

In addition to those named in the Discipline: Sunday School Superintendents, who are members of the church, the District Stewards, and two laymen to be elected from each Quarterly Conference—1870.

Exhorters—1871. Recording Stewards, 1879. Epworth League Presidents, when men, 1911.

Change of Conference Relation.

RESOLVED, That we request the Committee on Conference Relations not to recommend for a change from an effective to a non-effective relation any man who is in debt—1891.

Anniversaries.

RESOLVED, That the several anniversaries be held in the afternoon, and that no collection be taken at these meetings—1894.

RESOLVED, That the Committee on Public Worship be asked to set aside the evening for evangelistic services when possible—1910.

Committee on Memoirs.

First—That hereafter the committee shall be appointed for four years, and the chairman thereof shall be the custodian of our Book of Memoirs, keep it posted, and have it at Conference, and shall gather during the year such data of those who die as may be helpful to perfect their memoirs.

Second—That our standing rule, making the administration of the Lord's Supper a part of the memorial service, be repealed.

Third—That this committee be composed of men not on boards or other committees—1908.

Nominations.

RESOLVED, That the Presiding Elders be, hereafter, a standing committee on nominations of committees and boards.

Reports.

The Statistical Secretary must verify all reports by the Treasurer's balance sheet—1914.

All reports must be turned into the Statistical Secretary not later than noon of Friday of the Conference session; otherwise they will not be printed in the Conference minutes—1915.

Finance.

The expense of printing the minutes shall be pro-rated among the several Conference Boards—1915.

DAILY JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY MORNING—FIRST DAY.

The forty-eighth annual session of the Southwest Missouri Conference convened in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Jefferson City, Mo., September 11, 1918, 9 o'clock a. m., with Bishop W. B. Murrah in the chair, Rev. J. T. Prichett having preached the annual sermon to the undergraduates the evening before.

The Bishop announced Hymn 334—

“My Faith Looks Up to Thee,”

and read and delivered a very helpful exposition on Philippians, the third chapter.

The secretary of the last Conference called the roll, and the following brethren answered to their names: (See roll.)

J. E. Alexander was elected secretary, and upon his nomination the following assistants were elected: C. C. Higbee, Alonzo Patison, E. T. Raney, G. E. Hargis, George W. Ellis, E. B. Maloney, O. S. Firestone and J. R. Scott.

On motion of W. T. McClure, a Quadrennial Committee to publish the minutes was authorized, consisting of the secretary and two members to be nominated by the secretary.

On motion of the pastor, J. E. McDonald, the bar of the Conference was fixed at the rear of the side windows, and the hours of meeting and adjournment were fixed at 9 a. m. and 12 o'clock noon.

The annual committees nominated by the presiding elders were presented by F. M. Burton and duly elected. (See list.)

J. C. Saylor was substituted on the Examining Committee of the third year in the place of O. M. Rickman, who was absent from the session.

C. H. Briggs offered a resolution for the consideration of the Conference Commission on Finance. (See resolutions.)

The following resolution, signed by J. E. McDonald, W. T. McClure and B. P. Taylor, was unanimously adopted by a rising vote: “We pledge ourselves to respond to any calls the Council of Defense may make upon us to speak on patriotic matters, and to open our churches for speakers under their direction, and we hereby place ourselves on record as being in accord with the aggressive war policies of Governor Frederick D. Gardner and President Wilson.”

A number of communications from the general connectional interests were referred to the various boards and committees without reading.

The following visiting brethren were introduced to the Conference: Rev. S. H. Hayne, J. F. Caskey and J. M. Bone, of the Missouri Conference; Dr. C. B. Bulla, secretary of the Wesley Organized Class Movement; R. L. Nollner, assistant Epworth League secretary; A. P. Parker, of the China Mission Conference; Stonewall Anderson, secretary of the Board of Education; Rev. A. D. Betts, president of Payne College.

Rev. C. B. Duncan, of the Missouri Conference, and Rev. H. S. DuBois, of the St. Louis Conference, were introduced to the Conference, and the Chair announced that they had been duly transferred to the Southwest Missouri Conference.

Dr. Stonewall Anderson addressed the Conference in the interests of the General Board of Education. Dr. J. F. Caskey addressed the Conference in the interests of the St. Louis Christian Advocate. And Rev. A. D. Betts represented the needs of Payne College and received an offering amounting to $155.47 in the interests of his school.

Question 22—"Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" was called, and the names of M. Bahrenberg, W. F. Briggs, J. T. Caldwell, J. A. Castel, N. M. Dowdy, W. T. Eastwood, G. H. Green, J. L. Hagler, J. E. Harney, H. D. Hogan, J. T. Layall, G. O. Loch, J. A. Matthews, H. I. Miller, J. G. L. Mitchell, L. P. Norfleet, J. W. Ogden, W. P. Owen, T. D. Payne, J. F. Pike, W. A. Smith, George J. Warren, J. D. Wood, C. C. Woods, J. C. L. Boehm and C. Bruner were called, their characters passed, and their names were referred to the committee for the superannuate relation.

The names of J. M. Clark, T. M. Cobb, C. M. Davenport, J. W. Ezell, J. C. Morris, M. Larkin, W. F. Wagoner, C. W. Scarritt and Lawrence Orr were called, their characters passed, and their names were referred to the committee for the supernumerary relation.

W. A. Brewer, W. M. McAllister, J. W. Payne, J. C. Shackelford and Jacob Shook, having died during the year, their names were referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

The names of J. R. Strong, D. B. Duncan, F. M. Burton, A. R. Faris, J. T. Pritchett, C. H. Briggs, A. N. James, R. J. Kyle, D. E. Dowless, L. L. Pinnell, W. P. Buckner, B. B. Pennington, J. R. Scott, J. D. Prater, J. N. Villines, W. E. Reid, J. B. Swinney, B. P. Taylor, W. J. Snow, A. L. Scales, W. H. Smith, M. C. Magers, W. A. McClannahan, A. B. Jackson, H. J. Rand, M. M. Sooter, C. C. Ailor, J. W. Owen and Z. M. Williams were called.

After the usual announcements, the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Murrah.

THURSDAY MORNING—SECOND DAY.

The Conference met, pursuant to adjournment, with religious service conducted by W. T. McClure.

Minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

The roll of the absentees was called and the presence of a number of brethren who had arrived since the first session was recorded.

Communications from several of the connectional interests were referred without reading.

The following visiting brethren were introduced to the Conference: Revs. W. L. Scarborough, B. D. Sipple, T. M. Taylor and O. H. Phillips, of the Missouri Conference; Thomas B. Mather, of the St. Louis Conference; Rev. E. D. Lewis, from the Denver Conference, and Rev. W. P. Schoup, of the Missouri Anti-Saloon League.

Question 22 was resumed, and the names of J. G. Haynes, O. E. Vivion, W. H. Suddath, J. R. Hedges, C. L. Stouffer, C. F. Pryor, J. E. McDonald, G. M. Blaine, C. T. Wallace, W. H. Hargrove, L. F. Shook, W. P. Barrett, G. M. Coffman, A. C. Clendenning, P. M. Cain, T. A. Huffine, W. H. Comer and H. P. Jones were called and their characters were passed.

Rev. W. P. Schoup addressed the Conference, after which Governor Frederick D. Gardner was introduced to the Conference and accorded an enthusiastic reception.

The Governor delivered an address setting forth some of the outstanding facts with reference to his administration and the hopeful condition confronting our commonwealth. At the close of which the entire Conference had the privilege of greeting him with an old-fashioned Methodist handshake, while the congregation sang—

“My Country, 'Tis of Thee.”

The hour having arrived for the Missionary Centenary Programme, very inspiring, happy and helpful addresses were delivered by Dr. W. W. Pinson, Dr. J. L. Neale, Dr. A. P. Parker, Miss Howell and Dr. C. D. Bulla.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the usual announcements were made and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. C. C. Woods.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON—SECOND DAY.

Conference met at 3 o'clock p. m., as per previous announcement, with Bishop Murrah in the chair.

Devotional services consisted of singing—and prayer by W. H. Winton.

“Children of the Heavenly King,”

Upon request, the name of H. W. Bostwick was called, his character passed, and he referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuate relation.

Dr. H. A. Boaz, secretary of the Church Extension Board, and Dr. E. O. Watson, secretary of our War Commission, were introduced to the Conference.

A number of communications from various connectional interests were referred without reading.

Miss Mabel Howell, Drs. Boaz, Pinson and Watson, and Rev. J. L. Neale gave most instructive and inspiring addresses concerning various phases of the missionary centenary campaign.

After the usual announcements, the Conference adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock p. m. The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Watson.

THURSDAY EVENING—SECOND DAY.

Conference met at 8 p. m., pursuant to adjournment, with Bishop Murrah in the chair.

Hymn 631—

"Jesus shall reign where'er the sun Does his successive journey run," was sung, after which C. H. Briggs led the Conference in prayer.

The Missionary Centenary Programme was continued, and a very strong and inspiring address on the twentieth century missionary outlook was delivered by Bishop Murrah.

Rev. J. L. Neale then delivered an address setting forth the results of our own missionary activities, using a series of most interesting and instructive stereopticon views.

After some statements from Dr. W. W. Pinson, W. H. Winton offered a resolution with reference to adopting the Centenary Programme, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote. (See resolutions.)

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow," was sung, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Murrah.

FRIDAY MORNING—THIRD DAY.

Devotional service was conducted by W. H. Comer, after which the Bishop called the Conference to order.

The minutes of Thursday's sessions were read and approved.

H. U. Campbell, I. A. Smith and F. R. Chapman were elected as assistants to the Conference treasurer.

W. T. McClure and O. E. Vivion were, with the secretary, elected a committee to publish the minutes.

Dr. P. H. Linn, president of Central College, was introduced to the Conference.

C. E. Ruyle was substituted in place of J. B. Swinney and O. C. Browning was substituted in place of J. R. Miller on the Commission on Finance.

L. R. Crook, E. T. Raney, Ira Karr, F. N. Looney, J. W. Smith, J. C. Saylor, J. T. Pinnell, J. J. Kellar, O. S. Firestone, J. R. Hargis, W. H. Winton, J. B. Ellis, O. M. Rickman, J. S. Emery and I. A. Smith were called and their characters passed.

The names of C. A. Powers and W. G. Beasley were called, their characters passed, and the Bishop announced that they had been transferred to the West Virginia and the Missouri Conference, respectively.

The name of A. C. Gayle was called, his character was passed, and it was announced that he had been relieved from his charge during the year.

Question 1—"Who are admitted on trial?" was called, and Charles Franklin Welch, John Wesley Nelson (L. E.) and Herman Huston Hays were called, and they were recommended for admission on trial.

Question 4—"Who are admitted into full connection?" was called, and Otis Gray Andrews (L. E.), Homer Ulysses Campbell, Robert Cleveland Edwards, William Combs Teays, Lycurgus Monroe Starkey, William Wilbur Garrett and Thomas Bradley Mather, having passed their examinations and recommended by the committee, were invited to the bar of the Conference, where they were admonished by the Bishop and answered the disciplinary questions, after which they were elected to membership in the Conference.

A purse of $51.00 in token of the high esteem for Dr. C. C. Woods, who had been the secretary of the Conference for forty-two consecutive years, was presented to him. In accepting same he made a very fitting and feeling response.

The Bishop presented to the Conference two constitutional questions which had been sent down by the General Conference to the several Annual Conferences, and vote was taken without debate.

On the question, "Whether lay members shall be eligible to all Conferences, boards and lay offices of the Church, without regard to sex," 119 members of the Conference were present and voted, 119 in favor and none in opposition.

On the question, "Whether the Apostle's Creed shall be so amended as to substitute for the words 'Holy Catholic Church' the words 'Christ's Holy Church,'" 117 members voted, eighty-four voting in favor of the change and thirty-three voting in opposition.

Leave of absence was granted to Z. M. Williams, J. A. Castel and O. E. Vivion.

Disciplinary questions were resumed.

Question 2—"Who remain on trial?" was called. Arthur Campbell and Earl Francis Dillon were called, and having passed their examinations, they were advanced to the class of the second year. Earl Davis Maloney, not having passed the committee, was continued in the class of the first year.

Question 3—"Who are discontinued?" was called and answered, "Frank Milton Price."

Question 7—"Who are received from other churches as local preachers?" was called and answered, "No one."

Question 8—"Who are received from other churches as traveling preachers?" was called and answered, "No one."

Question 9—"Who are the deacons of one year?" and Raymond Bene-fiel Kimbrell, Festus Earl Jenkins, Samuel Jefferson Starkey, Floyd Richard Chapman, John Arthur Brown, Lewis Francis Filewood and Eldridge Wesley Bartley were called, and their examinations having been approved, were advanced to the class of the fourth year.

James Russell Brown, not having passed the committee, was continued in the class of the third year.

Announcement was made that Claude Breidenthal had left our Church and had surrendered his credentials. And Lennie Shell Nightwine was announced as having entered the Montana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Question 10—"What traveling preachers are elected deacons?" was called, and Robert Cleveland Edwards, William Combs Teays, Lycurgus Monroe Starkey, William Wilbur Garrett and Thomas Bradley Mathers, having passed approved examinations, were elected to deacon's orders.

Question 12—"What local preachers are elected deacons?" was called, and King Vivion, having passed the committee, was duly elected.

Question 14—"What traveling preachers are elected elders?" was called, and Ernest Delbert Baker, William Edward Brown and Walter Earl Hill, having been approved by the committees, were elected elders.

Question 16—"What local preachers are elected elders?" was called, and Floyd Richard Chapman and Homer Ulysses Campbell, having been recommended in due form, were elected.

Question 18—"Who are located this year?" was called and answered, "No one."

A memorial from the third quarterly conference of the La Belle-Moore Haven Charge, Bartow District, Florida Conference, recommending the restoration of the credentials of William O. Troutman, formerly an elder in full connection with the Southwest Missouri Conference, was presented, and without opposition his credentials were restored.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the usual announcements were made and the benediction pronounced by Dr. A. P. Parker.

SATURDAY MORNING—FOURTH DAY.

Devotional services were conducted by W. H. Smith and the Bishop resumed the chair.

Minutes of Friday's session were read and approved.

Question 5—"Who are readmitted?" was called, and Edmond F. Cook, having been recommended by the committee, was readmitted into the traveling connection.

The name of L. L. Pinnell was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuate relation.

The Committee on Conference Relations made its report answering Questions 19 and 20.

Question 51—"Who is elected Conference lay leader?" was called, and Perry S. Rader was elected.

C. W. Scarritt was elected Conference treasurer for the next quadrennium; and, upon his nomination, H. U. Campbell, I. A. Smith and F. R. Chapman were elected his assistants.

On nomination of the presiding elders, the quadrennial committees and boards were elected. (See list.)

Report number of Committee on Conference Relations was presented, and L. L. Pinnell was granted the superannuate relation.

The substitute offered by C. H. Briggs was adopted in place of report submitted by the Commission on Finance. (See reports.)

Resolution with reference to pooling railroad fares, presented by F. R. Campbell and J. E. Alexander, was adopted. (See resolutions.) And in this connection a resolution presented by the laymen, requesting each pastoral charge of the Conference to pay the expenses of their pastor to the Annual Conference, was adopted.

Reports from the following boards and committees were read and adopted: Joint Board of Finance, Board of Mission No. 1, Epworth League, Books and Periodicals, Temperance, District Conference Journals, American Bible Society, and Evangelism.

Question 8—"Who are received from other churches as traveling preachers?" was called, and L. S. Nightwine was received as a traveling preacher from the Montana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

On motion, the Conference adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock p. m., Sunday, in memorial session. The Bishop appointed W. H. Comer to preside.

After the usual announcements, the benediction was pronounced by the Bishop.

MEMORIAL SESSION

SUNDAY AFTERNOON—FIFTH DAY.

Conference convened in memorial session at 3 p. m., with W. H. Comer, by appointment of the Bishop, in the chair.

After the devotional service, consisting of Hymns 463 and 315, a scripture lesson from the Epistle to the Thessalonians and prayer by W. H. Winton, the Twenty-first Question, "What preachers have died during the past year?" was called, and the Committee on Memoirs submitted the following report:

"Dear Brethren—Your Committee on Memoirs had referred to us the following names of members who have died during the year:

"James W. Payne, J. C. Shackelford, W. A. Brewer, W. M. McAllister, Jacob Shook.

"Also, the names of preachers' wives, for whom we submit short memoirs for record:

"Mrs. T. M. Cobb, Mrs. Mary Knowles, Mrs. C. P. Wallace, Mrs. J. L. Hagler and Mrs. J. E. Hogan."

After the reading of the memoirs, appropriate and feeling remarks were made by a number of brethren, and the report, with the following resolution, was adopted:

"RESOLVED, That we respectively request and urge the brethren of the Conference that when a member or the wife or widow of a member of the Conference dies, that the preacher officiating at the funeral notify the chairman of this committee at once, that a suitable memoir may be prepared."

On motion, the Conference adjourned with the benediction of J. E. Alexander.

MONDAY MORNING—SIXTH DAY.

Conference met pursuant to adjournment, with Bishop Murrah in the chair. After religious services conducted by J. W. Smith, the minutes of Saturday were read and approved. Minutes of Sunday's session were corrected and approved.

The following boards, committees and commissions made their reports, which were adopted: Methodist Benevolent Association, Sunday School Board, Board of Church Extension, Board of Missions No. 2, Conference Relations No. 3, Board of Education, Board of Finance No. 2, and Finance Commission.

Upon motion of J. E. McDonald, an invitation was extended to Hon. W. J. Bryan to address the Conference at 10:30 a. m.

The name of J. M. Clark was referred to the committee for the superannuate relation.

Upon motion, the Conference voted to reconsider the report of the Finance Commission, which was adopted on Saturday, and after some discussion the report was amended. (See report.)

Resuming Question 6—"Who are received by transfer from other conferences?" the following names were announced by the chair: C. M. Hawkins, from the St. Louis Conference; I. A. Smith, from the North Texas Conference; I. T. Cameron, from the Florida Conference; W. G. Beasley, from the Missouri Conference, and C. B. Duncan, from the Missouri Conference.

Question 11—"What traveling preachers are ordained elders?" was called, and answered: Robert Cleveland Edwards, Williams Combs Teays, Lycurgus Monroe Starkey, William Wilton Garrett and Thomas Bradley Mather.

Question 13—"What local preachers are ordained deacons?" was answered: "No one."

Question 15—"What traveling preachers are ordained elders?" was answered: Ernest Delbert Baker, William Edward Brown and Walter Earl Hill.

The statistical secretary read his report answering Questions 23 to 50, inclusive.

W. T. McClure was called to the chair while Bishop Murrah retired for a brief consultation with the presiding elders.

C. N. Clark read a complimentary report expressing the thanks of the Conference for the splendid entertainment received, which was adopted by a rising vote.

Upon motion by Alonzo Patison, the Conference voted that all the statistical reports be in the hands of the statistical secretary by 5 o'clock of the second day of the Conference; otherwise, not to appear in the minutes.

The Bishop resumed the chair, and R. F. Campbell was elected to fill the vacancy in the Commission on Finance, to take the place of F. M. Burton.

U. V. Wyatt presented to F. M. Burton a gift representing the love of the brethren of the Lexington District, which was received by the latter with a few words of grateful appreciation.

The hour having arrived at which Mr. Bryan was to speak, he was introduced to and addressed the Conference. John M. Atkinson, president of the Anti-Saloon League for Missouri, was also introduced to the Conference, and both were given a hearty handshake.

The minutes of the morning's session were read and approved.

The Bishop called Question 53, "Where are the preachers stationed this year?" and the list of appointments was read. (See appointments.)

The Conference rose and sung—

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow," and was dismissed with the benediction by Bishop Murrah.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Southwest Missouri Conference.

Dear Brethren:

In accordance with the duties assigned us, we, the Board of Church Extension, beg leave to submit the following report:

Your Board has received a communication from H. A. Boaz, our general secretary of Church Extension, recommending the appointment of a representative from this Board to the annual meeting of the General Board in Louisville next May. We feel that it is not within our province to take such action, but recommend it to the consideration of the new Board.

We heartily agree with his recommendation that a representative of this Board visit each district conference to represent the interests of Church Extension before said body.

We recommend to all our churches the procurement immediately of ample security through insuring our church and parsonage property in a first-class company at the lowest rate possible. We wish to impress our people with the fact that a failure to secure ample protection by insuring their property discounts their application for assistance, in case of loss by fire or otherwise, from this Board. We recommend that in erection of churches or parsonages a competent architect be secured and his plans followed.

We recommend to all our people the Loan Fund Department as a safe investment, with ample returns for any moneys or property they may have or hold, which they wish in the end to be given to the Church. The interest ranges from 5% to 9%, according to the expectancy of the annuitant, interest paid semi-annually.

The following grants were made conditionally:

For parsonage at Oak Grove, $300.

For parsonage at Grand View, $150.

A loan to Sarcoxie, for parsonage, $700.

The assessment for the ensuing year is $6,945.

The report of our treasurer, W. J. Campbell, was received, his books and accounts audited and found to be correct.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. J. WARREN, Chairman.

R. B. KIMBRELL, Secretary.

W. J. CAMPBELL,

Treasurer Southwest Missouri Conference.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

To the Bishop and Members of the Southwest Missouri Conference.

Dear Brethren:

The treasurer's report will show that you have collected for the work of the American Bible Society $812.91. Last year you collected $527.67, an increase this year. We appreciate this substantial increase.

The budget system of financing will give the percentage to the American Bible Society the coming year.

In this hour of the world's crisis the work of the American Bible Society is at the very front. The number of copies of the Scriptures distributed to the soldiers and among the disturbed people of the earth, in various languages, is demanding to its fullest extent all the resources at the disposal of the society. We must give unstinted support.

As the war progresses it is becoming clearer and clearer that life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are heavily involved. These are very precious principles and must be defended where they are known and enjoyed, and taught to the peoples of earth who know them not.

Social economic readjustments are expected to follow the war. The whole fundamental doctrines of property, property rights and social relations of men will be readjusted by the teachings of Jesus Christ or by the teachings of material philosophy. The world has no doctrine or property rights save selfishness. The Christian Bible alone can teach, with authority, stewardship of life. Material teaching and teachers have never told us why it is wrong to steal, wreck character or destroy life. For these great principles the world must wait till it has a chance to read Jesus.

When, therefore, we appeal for your support for the American Bible Society we are appealing for no less than your support of the Bible itself in its relation to the vital things of human life and destiny.

Respectfully submitted,

U. V. WYATT, Chairman.

J. W. OWEN, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The outgoing Board has a very small legacy to bequeath to its successor, but, such as it has, it gladly and thankfully gives. We have for four years represented the great young people's cause, and are pleased to realize that, while our own contribution has been small, yet this has been a period of growth and usefulness in the Epworth League which compares favorably with any like period in the past.

The Church is about to enter into a larger relation to the world and the kingdom, advancing by faith into some unknown fields. It is our desire to pledge the unflinching allegiance of the League in this venture and our sincere hope that through whatever difficulty and trial we may be subjected the League will stand by the Church to the end.

We indorse, commend and accept the share of the League in the great centenary campaign, and would pledge the Leagues of this Conference to attain their goal. Because the League is an institution of the Church, we are convinced that its success will depend upon being so recognized and used. Therefore, we would urge upon all our pastors the duty of cultivating, knowing and sympathizing with their League chapters in all things; promoting and defending, studying and planning, that the League may have greater reason for being a part of the fabric of the Church.

We indorse and commend the Missouri State Epworth League organization, and pledge our support for the State League Conference. An institution of far-reaching influence for good educationally, spiritually, inspirationally, is being built up herein, and its power is no longer a speculation. It is past the experimental stage.

Because the financial plan of the Church presumes simplification, and because the State organization and State Conference cannot be made without funds, and because the League is not an insignificant factor as a source of revenue for the Church, we would ask the Conference Finance Commission for a share in the budget, especially since the connectional budget has so provided.

We re-indorse the African special and the great African missionary work, and are willing that the Leagues should assume this field as their particular responsibility. We are glad to note that the voluntary pledges of the Leagues of the State Conference are more than $6,000 for this cause the coming year.

H. J. RAND, Chairman.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.*Report No. 1.

To the Bishop and Members of the Southwest Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Dear Brethren:

We are closing the quadrennium. It has been one of heroic endeavor and marked with unusual success. Our hearts turn with gratitude to Him whose presence and help has attended us in all our labors.

The figures as compiled and furnished us by the General Board reveal the following gratifying results:

Number of Sunday schools, 17,279, an increase of 33 for the year and 630 for the quadrennium. Number of teachers and officers, $151,792, an increase of 1,501 for the year and 19,820 for the quadrennium.

Number of pupils, 1,750,179. Total enrollment, 1,901,971, a decrease of 26,077 for the year and an increase of 272,281 for the quadrennium.

A gain over the increase in church membership of 101,119 during the quadrennium.

There are 19,844 societies and 17,279 Sunday schools. This indicates to us that there are 2,565 church organizations without Sunday schools.

As we stand upon this lofty pinnacle of success we get a vision of the great possibilities which the future holds for us and our increased responsibilities.

It is evident that a new Sunday school day is dawning upon us. To the light which this new day brings we must not be indifferent.

Our recent General Conference has given us some wise practical working plans. The thought embodied in these plans is that the time has come when we must conform to the spirit and purpose of these principles by a decided forward movement.

District Organizations.

The discipline provides for district organization. This need is urgent in meeting the highest aims of our Sunday school endeavor. Two districts have effected organizations during the year, viz., the Marshall and Lexington.

We earnestly appeal to the various districts that they effect such organizations at the earliest possible moment.

Teacher Training.

We call special attention to the importance of the organization of teacher training classes. This need is indispensable in order to bring our Sunday schools up to the highest standard of efficiency.

Bible Classes.

The organized Bible class is now recognized as an invaluable contribution in our Sunday school endeavor. It is greatly aiding in the solution of many of our church problems.

We therefore urgently appeal to the pastors and superintendents to give special consideration to this particular phase of our Sunday school work, and wherever practicable organize Bible classes.

Sunday School Day.

The General Conference, in its recent session, substituted for Children's Day what is to be known as Sunday School Day.

We would insist that all our pastoral charges and churches observe this day and combine their efforts with that of the pastor in making all the interests contemplated the greatest possible success.

Report No. 2.

Field Secretary.

In keeping with the policy of the General Board and its generous offer to give $500 to help in defraying the expenses, we unanimously recommend the appointment of a field secretary for promoting Sunday school extension in the home field.

A carefully prepared map submitted to our Board revealed the startling fact that there are a number of counties within the bounds of this Conference without a single Sunday school represented by our Church.

We therefore, in the face of this imperative need, recommend the appointment of W. J. Snow as field secretary.

J. H. SNEED, President.

W. J. SNOW, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

Your Board is pleased to report a substantial increase in the Conference Claimants' Fund this year. We have been able to make several much needed increases in appropriations and still leave a nice balance in the treasury for possible additions to the roll during the sitting of the Conference and to care for any reasonable emergencies during the next Conference year.

The amount reported to this Board by the Conference as a basis for distribution is $11,131.81. We have made the following appropriations:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

A most radical change has come over the educational situation. Our schools are becoming armed camps, while many of our professors are in the government service. The government has learned many lessons from the mistakes of our allies. In France, England and Canada the schools and universities are almost deserted, but in the United States education is in closer relation to the Department of War than any other department of the government. The President of the United States insists that education is now a patriotic duty. At Southern Methodist University departments have been added for military instruction in flying machines, automobile gasoline engines, wireless telegraphy and mechanical drawing. This Board calls attention to all undergraduates that they must take the Correspondence Course and begin immediately. This is the order of the General Conference, and applies to all. This Board will pay one-half of the tuition of the undergraduates who apply through their presiding elder. The Conference is asked to appoint Frederick D. Gardner and W. J. Campbell curators of Central College for Women; Marian C. Early, O. C. Jackson, W. J. Ruyle, C. Clyde Edwards and J. M. Cunningham, curators for Scarritt-Morrisville College; J. T. Pritchett, C. E. Ruyle and C. B. Duncan, Executive Committeemen for the Preachers' Institute; B. F. Taylor and G. A. Radford, members of the Commission on Christian Education for the State University; and W. C. Scarritt and Frank S. Groves, curators for Central College, Fayette. We recommend the good work of Prof. A. N. Norton, president of Scarritt-Morrisville. We consider his plan for correlation with the public school a hopeful one, and express our confidence in his ability to perfect this or some other plan to solve the problem of this school. We recommend that they seek classification as a mountain training school and ask assistance from the General Board. In obedience to the action of the Conference, recommended by the Commission on Finance, we are asking for an appropriation of $550 for religious work at Columbia, and the expenses of this Board, as well as the expenses of the secretary of education, A. L. Scales. We recommend the appointment of Dr. Ed. F. Cook as president of Scarritt Bible and Training School.

J. T. PRITCHETT, President.

GILMORE COFFMAN, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Dear Brethren:

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals begs leave to submit the following report:

Sunday School Literature.

Our Church may justly take pride in the splendid Sunday school literature issued by our Publishing House, under the efficient editorship of Rev. E. B. Chappell, D. D., secretary of the General Sunday School Board. We heartily recommend that all our Sunday schools use our own pub-fications, and we also commend our graded literature to the careful consideration of pastors and superintendents. Being firmly convinced of the imperative need for trained teachers, we commend to our brethren the courses of study offered by our Department of Teacher Training.

Epworth Era.

We urge that our young people make the largest use of the Epworth Era that is practicable.

Christian Advocate.

The Christian Advocate (Nashville), our great central organ, should be read by all our pastors and many of our laymen. Under the able editorship of Dr. Thomas N. Ivey, this paper ranks with the leading religious journals of the nation. We suggest that definite efforts be made to increase its circulation.

Methodist Review.

Dr. Frank M. Thomas, the newly-elected editor of the Methodist Review, has outlined an enlarged and attractive programme for this important periodical, and a special effort has been made to increase its circulation. We urge all our pastors to rally to the support of Dr. Thomas and to avail themselves of the advantages to be derived from the regular reading of this periodical. It would also be worth while for our stronger laymen to take and read the Review.

St. Louis Christian Advocate.

The Editorial Committee of the St. Louis Christian Advocate submitted a series of recommendations to the Conference, which are as follows: To the President and Members of the Southwest Missouri Annual Conference.

For the continuance and management of the Advocate, we recommend:

1. That the three Annual Conferences of Missouri incorporate a Publishing Company, and this Conference elect, at this session, as trustees, one minister, one layman and one laywoman, to act with like trustees from the Missouri Conference and the St. Louis Conference in securing the instruments of incorporation.

2. That these trustees, constituting the corporation, shall be a board of managers for the Publishing Company, and they shall elect the editor and, on behalf of the Conference, control the policy and business management of the paper. Said trustees to hold office continuously, all vacancies to be filled by the respective Annual Conference from which vacancy occurs.

3. That the present trustees, appointed under the will of Dr. Palmore, seek to place the ownership and control of the Advocate in the hands of the corporation above mentioned, taking such legal steps as are necessary thereto.

4. That this Conference levy an assessment of $1,500 for the maintenance of the Advocate, any deficit from this assessment to be equitably distributed to and paid by the Boards of Missions, Education, Church Extension, Sunday School, Epworth League and Finance; provided, that new subscriptions to the Advocate secured in the charges and districts shall count on their assessments at the rate of $1.00 for each $2.00 subscription obtained therein. This assessment to be levied each year until the subscription list reaches 12,000.

5. That this same action on the part of the Missouri and St. Louis Conferences shall be necessary to the carrying out of these plans.

JOHN F. CASKEY.

C. C. GRIMES.

ALFRED F. SMITH.

We recommend the adoption of this report and that the proper steps be taken to carry out all its recommendations. We recommend the election of the following as trustees of the proposed Publishing Company, as provided in the above report:

Dr. Britton P. Taylor, of Kansas City; Hon. Perry S. Rader, of Jefferson City, and Mrs. F. N. Peters, of Kansas City.

We also recommend that the said Publishing Company shall consider the unpaid salary of the present acting editor, Dr. Mather, as among the liabilities of the Advocate, and make provision for same.

We further recommend that a vigorous campaign be made during the coming year to secure subscriptions to the Advocate.

Books and Tracts.

In order to deepen the spiritual life of our people and increase their intelligence in matters that vitally affect their moral and religious welfare, thus guarding them against the insidious propaganda of various and sundry cults operating in our midst, we urge our pastors to place in the hands of their people, in addition to one or more church papers, carefully selected and inexpensive tracts and books, and that the people be urged to read the same. We would also respectfully urge our publishing agents, Smith & Lamar, to take definite steps toward the creation of a literature of our own to meet this need.

E. W. WOLFE, Chairman.

A. L. SCALES, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

We, the Committee on Temperance, beg to submit the following report:

We rejoice in the great victory we have recently won. We note with gratification that fourteen States have ratified national prohibition. We will work and pray for twenty-two others to make the necessary three-fourths. We hail with delight that Congress has passed the war prohibition acts—the most important one prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, July 1, 1919.

The most recent act passed by Congress empowers the War Board to prohibit the manufacture of intoxicants December 1, 1918. We are indeed grateful to the State Legislature for giving us an opportunity to vote on State-wide prohibition November 5, 1918. We, therefore, pledge ourselves to support this great movement.

We wish again to pledge our loyalty, support and co-operation to the Anti-Saloon League in carrying out the programme as outlined by them. And express our appreciation to them for their courage and zeal in battling against this terrible traffic. We urge our preachers to co-operate with and place themselves at the command of the local county citizens' dry alliance by preaching, teaching and enlisting the congregation in this gigantic struggle for freedom from this evil.

This is a time when our boys are giving their blood to make the world a decent place in which to live. We wish, therefore, to lay ourselves on the altar of righteousness to make this, their home, a decent place for them to live when they return.

We wish hereby to recommend the re-election to the Board of Trustees of Missouri Anti-Saloon League Rev. W. T. McClure and Mr. C. C. Carson.

A. NOBLE JAMES, Chairman.

E. D. BAKER, Secretary.

EVANGELISM.

In this day, when the minister and the Church are called upon to co-operate in so many worthy social, philanthropic and patriotic enterprises, there is a temptation to neglect the distinctive message for which the Gospel is to stand. We wish, therefore, to briefly emphasize again the evangelical phase of the work of the Church of God. There can be no substitute for Jesus Christ as the Savior of the world.

We believe in organization. It is a condition of progress. All of our districts and charges should be thoroughly organized. And the success of the Church depends in part upon the success of the organizations in the Church. Beyond this, it must be emphatically stated that the work will be in vain except the Church be endued with power from God. We seek, therefore, the leadership and presence of the great Head of the Church. Let us reaffirm constantly our faith in prayer, in conversion, in the witness of the Spirit, in growth in grace, in "going on to perfection," in the inspiration of the Bible, and in the divinity of Jesus Christ and in the hope of Heaven.

Evangelical revivals have blessed Methodism in every age of her history. It will be thus enriched through the years to come. Shall not each of us permit ourselves and our churches to be used of God to hasten the coming revival? In our homes, our Bible schools, our regular church services, and in all special meetings, let the good tidings of great joy be told. Then the spiritual life will be a reality in all professed Christian hearts.

Our Conference evangelist has been in labors abundant during the year, and besides preaching the last quarter on the Blue Springs charge, he has held fourteen revivals, out of which have come, besides those uniting with other churches, about 300 who have united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. We heartily recommend his reappointment as Conference evangelist.

O. M. RICKMAN.
J. B. SWINNEY.
J. T. PRITCHETT.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We, your Committee on Conference Relations, respectfully submit the following report:

We recommend for the supernumerary relation: T. M. Cobb, C. M. Davenport, J. W. Ezell, J. C. Morris, M. Larkin, W. F. Wagoner, C. W. Scarritt and Lawrence Orr.

For the superannuated relation: M. Bahrenburg, W. F. Briggs, J. P. Caldwell, J. A. Castel, N. M. Dowdy, W. T. Eastwood, G. H. Green, J. L. Hagler, J. E. Harney, H. D. Hogan, J. T. Loyal, G. C. Loch, J. A. Matthews, H. I. Miller, J. G. L. Mitchell, L. P. Norfleet, J. W. Ogden, W. P. Owen, T. D. Payne, J. F. Pike, W. A. Smith, George J. Warren, J. D. Wood, C. C. Woods, H. W. Bostwick, C. Bruner, J. C. L. Boehm and L. L. Pinnell.

R. J. KYLE, Chairman.
J. R. HEDGES, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS.

RESOLVED, That we respectfully request and urge the brethren of the Conference that when a member, or the wife of a member, of this Conference dies, the preacher officiating at the funeral notify the Chairman of this Committee at once, that a suitable memoir may be prepared.

T. M. COBB.
W. H. WINTON.

POOLING RAILROAD FARE.

In view of the fact that a large majority of our Annual Conferences are held along the northern border of our Conference territory, and since the salaries in the southern section of the Conference average much smaller than any other section of the Conference. Therefore, be it RESOLVED, First—That all expenses for railroad tickets to and from the Conference be pooled, so that each clerical member of the Conference may share equally in traveling expenses.

Second—That Rev. H. U. Campbell, one of the assistants to the Conference treasurer, be elected as Conference teller, and instructed to receive and average all railroad expenses, and equalize them for the members of the Conference.

R. F. CAMPBELL.
J. E. ALEXANDER.

CONFERENCE EXPENSES.

The following resolution presented by the laymen of the Conference was adopted:

Resolved, That, since our pastors attending the sessions of our Annual Conference are there attending to the business of the Church, our business, and not their own, we urgently request that each one of our pastoral charges pay the expenses of their pastor to the sessions of the Conference.

(Signed) PERRY S. RADER, Chairman.
SIM BEAM, Secretary.

CENTENARY CAMPAIGN.

WHEREAS, The first hundred years of organized missionary work, expires in 1919. And,

WHEREAS, The Church, through its authorized channels, has planned a worthy and adequate celebration of this great occasion; be it

RESOLVED, That we, the Southwest Missouri Conference, do hereby indorse the programme as presented to us by the representatives of the Centenary Commission, and agree to co-operate in carrying it out in our districts and charges.

RESOLVED, further, That we accept the allotment of $829,719.20 as our share of the $35,000,000 to be raised in five years, including the regular income for missions, home and foreign, and church extension.

W. H. WINTON.
C. H. BRIGGS.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We have examined the District Conference Journals of the Joplin, Kansas City, Lexington, Marshall, Nevada and Springfield Districts, and find them all well and neatly kept.

The Journal of the Joplin District Conference has not been signed by the president and secretary of the conference.

J. T. PINNELL, Chairman.
H. U. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

The Board of Directors of the Methodist Benevolent Association submits the following report:

At the close of the fiscal year, September 10, 1918, the funds of the Association amounted to $32,298.70. The treasurer turned over to the Joint Board of Finance for the past year interest to the amount of $1,980.19.

The officers elected for the ensuing Conference year are as follows: President, W. C. Scarritt; vice-president, F. M. Burton; treasurer, Frank S. Groves; secretary, J. E. Alexander. The other members of the board are: Rev. R. N. Allen, Judge John A. Rich, Hon. Perry S. Rader.

W. C. SCARRITT, President.
J. E. ALEXANDER, Secretary.

REV. JAMES W. PAYNE.

The Rev. James W. Payne was a native of Virginia, born in Fauquier County on the 24th of April, 1849. He quietly fell asleep in Jesus in the evening of January 12, 1918, in the sixty-ninth year of his useful life. He died at his home in Kansas City, Kan., surrounded by his loving family. He came with his parents to Missouri in 1867. He was the second of five sons. He was united in marriage with Miss Jessie Harrison in Atchison, Kan., in 1886, who, with their two sons and four daughters, survives him. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when a young man; was licensed to preach in 1874; his first charge was Nebraska City Station. For thirty years he was a member of the Western Conference, and served the following charges: Atchison, Kansas City, Council Grove, Arkansas City, Bucyrus, Wyandotte Circuit, and as presiding elder in Kansas. He had two full quadrenniums each in Council Grove and Seventh Street Church, Kansas City, receiving an appointment of one year to the latter on the third quadrennium. This unusual record indicates the strength of his character and the popularity of the man. His keen wit and cheerful disposition overcame the handicap of dullness in hearing. He was a favorite with the people, a loved pastor, and a strong preacher of the Gospel of Christ and the peculiar doctrines of Methodism. His preaching was always spiritual, often pathetic, and sometimes powerful. The text used by Bishop Hendrix in the beautiful funeral sermon was fittingly appropriate: "He was a good man and full of faith and the Holy Ghost, and many people were added to the Lord." He was a true itinerant Methodist preacher, always accepting his appointment without complaint. If it was a hard place, he set himself to make it better. He served the Church well during the years of active ministry, and retired to the inactive roll gracefully. We all remember how pathetic his last message was, when he asked to be placed in the superannuated relation. Through this message, as through the whole life of this good man and faithful preacher, runs the vein of cheerful submission to the will of God and the wish of his brethren. His end was as peaceful as the close of a perfect day. He was tenderly laid to rest by loving hands in the Oak Grove Cemetery, after a beautiful service in the Seventh Street Church, participated in by many of his brethren of the ministry and attended by a very large number of sympathizing friends. "Servant of God, well done. Rest from thy loved employ."

REV. JOHN C. SHACKELFORD.

The subject of this sketch was born in Saline County, Missouri, August 4, 1829. As he grew to manhood amid the surroundings of a simple farm life, his active mind took hold upon great things, and he early formed the resolve to get an education. Following this resolve, he went to Yale College (afterward university) and applied himself as only those do who hunger for knowledge. He took the full college course, receiving the M. A. degree.

He then decided to study law, and while engaged in this, the Westminster Confession of Faith attracted his attention. He took it up and became deeply moved and greatly perplexed religiously. While passing through this experience he was impressed that he must give up the law and take up the ministry. At this time he had an opportunity to visit a session of the Missouri Annual Conference. There he met such men as Marvin, Caples, and others. As he observed them he thought they were the happiest men he had ever seen, and resolved at once to enter the same work. In 1854, at the age of twenty-five, he joined the St. Louis Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. For ten years he gave himself without stint to preaching "Christ and Him crucified." His health failed under the hard work of the pioneer preacher, and he took the supernumerary relations. From this on he was effective at intervals, as health and circumstances would permit, but always an itinerant to the last. Sixty-four years in the harness.

He was married to Miss Martha Neal, November 6, 1858. Four children were born to this union. Two sons died young, and his two daughters, Mrs. Saylor, wife of Rev. J. C. Saylor, of Marshfield, and Miss Emma, survive him. These ministered to him with great tenderness during his aged feebleness and last illness. Brother Shackelford was a scholarly man. Besides having a college education, an unusual advantage for a young man of the West in his day, he applied himself to the reading of great books and the study of great questions. He contributed to the Church papers and was the author of many pamphlets, etc. He was a man of deep convictions, and remarkable moral and spiritual force. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Saylor, July 11, 1918, at 2 a. m. He passed away as a child falls to sleep. There was "no moaning of the bar as he put out to sea." The evening before his health was as usual. In the night his daughter found him restless, and almost before they could be alarmed he slipped away. He was buried at Sweet Springs, Mo., beside his companion, to await the resurrection of the just.

REV. W. A. BREWER.

Rev. William Arthur Brewer quietly and suddenly passed to his home above from his earthly home in Springfield, Mo., on the 15th of April, 1918. He was born in Indiana, April 7, 1854, and came west with his parents when a boy. He was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Shiak at Anadarko, Okla., at the Southern Methodist Mission, February 7, 1892, who, with their two daughters, survives him. The same year of his marriage he was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. On the following day he was licensed to preach.

In November, 1892, he was admitted on trial into the Indian Mission Conference. For four years he served as a missionary to the Comanche and Kiowa Indians, preaching in huts and tents, suffering the privations and enduring hardships of those uncivilized peoples, and preaching the Gospel of the grace of God to the rude savage. In 1901 he was transferred to the Western Conference, and for five years he did heroic and faithful work in this difficult field. He often walked his circuit and preached three times a day.

He became a member of this Conference in 1906, where he has faithfully served the following charges: Niangua, Lowry City, Norwood and Sleeper. Three years ago his health failed, and he was given the superannuated relation by the Conference.

Brother Brewer was an untiring worker, a strong preacher, possessing a well-stored mind and a warm heart. Uncomplainingly he set himself to the hardest tasks and succeeded. He was a most careful student of the Bible and well versed in its teaching—really sent, it seemed, for the defense of the Gospel. He excelled in exegesis. His sermons were strong and thought clear. His manner serious and devout. He leaves behind him the influence of a godly life. He bequeaths to us the heritage of an untarnished character. He was engaged in revising some manuscript when the end came. The last sentence placed is: "Oh, death, where is thy sting? Oh, grave, where is thy victory?" Then he calmly fell asleep.

"Oh, happy, happy soul!
In ecstasies of praise,
Long as eternal ages roll
Thou seest thy Savior's face."

REV. W. M. McALLISTER.

The Rev. W. M. McAllister, who for many years was a faithful servant of his Lord, an efficient minister of the Gospel and an honored member of this Conference, departed this life in great peace in the eighty-ninth year of his age. He joined the Conference in 1876, and did effective work for many years, until he was compelled by failing health to retire from the active ministry.

His preaching was clear, strong and convincing; his conduct so gentle and kind that he won and held men by the force of his Christian character. His devotion to the work of the ministry secured for him a place in the esteem of his brethren that will linger now that he is gone from us. We pray that the mantle of his saintly life will fall upon other shoulders. We shall miss him, now that he is gone. The end of his earthly life came in peace, and his body was buried in the soil of Oklahoma, to await the resurrection.

Peace to his memory.

REV. JACOB SHOOK.

Rev. Jacob Shook died in the hospital at Springfield, where he had been taken for special care from his home in Morrisville, Mo. Brother Shook was seventy-two years of age at the time of his death. He had been a minister of the Southwest Missouri Conference since 1889; in the later years of his life he sustained the superannuated relation. During the years of his active service he faithfully and efficiently performed that part of the work to which he had been assigned. Brother Shook lived well, preached well, and was always popular because of the splendid man that he was.

He was loved by the people among whom he lived and labored. His body rests in the burying grounds near _____, Mo., awaiting the call of the Master.

Peace to his memory.

MRS. ELIZA CAMERON COBB.

A mother indeed in Israel has fallen in sleep and a helpmeet of the truest type to a man of God has gone on before to await their blessed reunion after a brief time.

Sister Eliza Cameron Cobb began her earthly pilgrimage at Boonville, Mo., August 15th, 1843, and departed this life at Lexington, Mo., on April 15th, 1918, lacking only four months of 75 years' earthly life. She was the daughter of Solimon and Rachel Houck and received her education in the Boonville schools and in Independence and Howard-Payne Colleges. While in Independence College she gave her heart to God and consecrated to Him her life service in the M. E. Church, South, under the ministry of Rev. W. B. McFarland.

On June 29th, 1868, she was married to Rev. Thomas M. Cobb in Kansas City, Mo. She was the mother of six children, three of whom survive her, Mrs. Robt. M. Taubman, Mrs. J. M. Poage and William B. Cobb. She and her devoted husband walked and worked together with great success in the Methodist itinerancy for more than fifty years and her aged husband's tender estimate of her is that, "No man ever had a more devoted, a more loving wife than she." And her children cherish her memory with tenderest of ever-increasing affection. She suffered many months and for several weeks before the end she was bedfast, was most patient and uncomplaining to the last and passed away in great peace. Indeed, she faced death with a smile of triumphant assurance and a tender farewell to her loved ones.

So it seems that she has just slipped away across the river to wait for and greet with the heavenly smile the coming of her loved ones and her host of friends. Her remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Lexington City Cemetery, after appropriate services, conducted by Rev. J. E. Alexander, assisted by Rev. F. M. Burton and Dr. J. M. Williams.

MRS. MARY E. KNOWLES.

Mary E. Knowles was born February 22, 1840, in Madison County, Missouri. She departed this life at her home in Sarcoxie, Mo., September 7, 1918. Married Rev. George W. Knowles in 1867, who preceded her in death by many years. During the years of her husband's life she shared joyously the trials and triumphs of the Methodist itinerant. She was called the "mother" of the church in her home town and performed that sacred service for many young preachers who chanced to come that way. Her faith grew stronger and her experience brighter as she neared the end of life. It was common to hear those who knew her most intimately say "She was the best woman I ever knew." She rests from her labors, and her body sleeps in the cemetery at Sarcoxie, Mo.

MRS. C. T. WALLACE.

Mrs. Emma Franklin Wallace was born in Clinton County, Missouri, October 13, 1860, and died in the parsonage at Buckner, Mo., October 2, 1917. She was married to Rev. C. T. Wallace, November 24, 1886, who survives her. She was a faithful and true companion, a real help to her husband in his itinerant labors and willingly performed her part in the work of the church. She was converted and joined the church when a child and ever lived true to her profession. She died in the triumphs of Christian faith, leaving a great host of friends to grieve her going, but not without hope. She died in peace, and after a fitting and beautiful funeral service, conducted by Rev. F. M. Burton, was buried in Plattsburg, Mo. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of his brethren.

MRS. J. I. HAGLER.

Elizabeth Hagler (nee McAndrews) was born in Tennessee, near Cleveland, in 1841, and came with her parents to Missouri and settled near Red Oak in 1849, where she grew to womanhood on a farm. She was united in marriage with the Rev. J. L. Hagler in 1862. For 56 years they walked and worked together, until weary with years and toil she fell asleep in Jesus and left her aged companion, with other members of his family, to mourn their loss. She died at her home in Tulsa, Okla., March 14, 1918, and was buried in the cemetery near that city. Sister Hagler professed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Church when quite young. She grew to be a strong and efficient Christian worker. She was a real homekeeper, a blessing to her children, a helpmeet and comfort to her husband during the years of his itinerant labors, and a solace in his declining age. Her home was ever open to the itinerant and many a preacher will recall, with pleasure, her gentle ministries in that home. Her faith was simple and strong. She passed out from earth as the close of a perfect day. She left her loved ones in sorrow, "but not without hope, for we believe in Jesus, and those who sleep in him will God bring with him, and so shall they ever be with the Lord."

MRS. E. J. HOGAN.

Mrs. E. J. Hogan was called to her reward in March, 1918, at her home in Neosho, Mo., after a long and painful illness, heroically endured. She had lived the true Christian life. For many years the companion in labor of her husband and honored member of this Conference, to whom she was devoted through all these years. She was a devout Christian, full of faith and of good works, when able to go, a patient sufferer anxious to depart and be with her Lord, but willing to abide the will of God. Her delight during her long affliction was in Christian fellowship, reading the word of God and prayer. After quite, or nearly, four score years of faith and service she died in peace. Her body was conveyed to Windsor, Mo., for burial, accompanied by her pastor, Rev. B. B. Pennington, who had conducted a funeral service in her home church at Neosho, of which she had long been a faithful member. She rests from her labors and her works do follow her.
